

Please do not approve the changes requested by the Consumer Bankers Association to the no-call list. Differences between State and Federal Law can easily be managed with computer technology and compliance with the law as-is presents no hardship to the groups this organization represents. The request made by this group is clearly not supported by citizens who are registered on these lists.